Subject: China Monthly Trade Report

Under instructions from our Department in Washington, we are sending the draft copy of the compilation for the China Monthly Trade Reports by fastest possible mailing route to Washington. After its perusal there by our Bureau, we are instructed by radio to make such alterations as may be deemed advisable, or in the absence of any such changes, to proceed with its mimeographing and distribution in accordance with established practice. This means a delay of several weeks in the mailing of these Reports from this office.

Sincerely yours,

Julean Arnold
