Dear Eldridge:

"Far Eastern Trade News"

It is very pleasing to have your note of September 19, reference 19, which has just been received, indicating the appreciation with which your new output, the "Far Eastern Trade News" is being received by the interested business public. I congratulate you upon the success of this effort and also upon the excellent manner in which you have devised ways and means of making the material from our organizations here in the Far East of greater service to our business interests.

Very truly yours,

Julian Arnold
