

Personalities

Professor Blunden Back

Professor E. C. Blunden, of the University of Hongkong, returned by air yesterday after three months in England. He said that his new book, "A Hongkong House", will be published soon.

Prof. Blunden was accompanied by his wife and their children.

Mr Jean-Francois Jarison, Minister of Labour and Social Welfare, Madagascar, arrived by CAT from Taipei yesterday.

Mr Henry Tseng, Managing Director of Scientific Service Company Limited, returned from West Germany by Lufthansa yesterday after attending the Olympia Typewriter 1961 international top sales meeting.

Mrs Beatrice Church, Chairman and Managing Director of The Advertising and Publicity Bureau Ltd, returned last night by Malayan Airways from a two-week business trip in Singapore and Malaya.

Mr R. H. Holton, District Director of American Immigration in Honolulu, Hawaii, arrived yesterday by Japan Air Lines from Tokyo for a five-day visit. He is accompanied by Mrs Holton.

The couple was met on arrival by Mr and Mrs F. J. Noble.

The Rev Arthur Organ, a Canadian pastor of the Mount Royal United Church of Montreal, who had spent two months preaching in a tiny Japanese church in the slums of Tokyo, left for Bangkok and Calcutta yesterday by Swissair after a short visit here.

Mr Organ said that he would visit the United Church missionary work in Central India and would return to Canada on September 29.

Mr A. L. Burridge, Regional Manager of Sterling Products International, Inc, has arrived from Tokyo by air on a 12-day business trip. To meet him at the airport was Mr Joseph Chow, Sterling representative in Hongkong; Mr A. A. Routon, Manager of Winthrop Stearns, Inc, and Mr R. Ling of China Commercial Advertising Agency (HK) Ltd. Mr Burridge was formerly with Civil Air Transport and has spent many years in Hongkong where he has many friends.