

Z. L. Loos To Entertain At Novel Party Today

To assist Mr. Charles Herbert in making movies of Shanghai featuring the "March of Time" in the Orient, Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Loo will give a tea party this afternoon in the Sky Terrace of the Park Hotel.

They have invited a group of about 40 friends to come for tea and participate in this newsreel.

Lintilhac-Malcolm Rites Solemnized

It was a simple wedding ceremony in the Holy Trinity Cathedral yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, which united in marriage Miss Claire Davidson Malcolm of Chefoo and Mr. Francis Eugene Lintilhac of the Imperial Chemical Industries Ltd. of Shanghai.

Reverend Ottewell of the Cathedral read the nuptial service while Mr. R. C. Young provided organ music. The ceremony was witnessed by a group of 30 friends of the couple, who later adjourned to the Astor House Hotel for the reception.

C. P. Lings Entertain At Cocktails Soon

To meet Mr. H. Neville Barker, artist, who arrived Monday from Sydney, Australia, to join the China Commercial Advertising Agency, Mr. C. P. Ling, General Manager of the agency, and Mrs. Ling have issued invitations for a cocktail and tea party next Friday afternoon at the Park Hotel.

A large group of friends have been invited for Friday between 5 and 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Sowerby Departs

Mrs. Arthur de C. Sowerby left Shanghai yesterday on the Tsingtao Maru for Ogonal, which is between Dalren and Port Arthur. She will be away for one month. Also departing from Shanghai by the same boat was Mrs. W. R. McBain.

Mrs. Young Leaves Town

Mrs. H. S. Young, headmistress of the S.M.C. Secondary School for Chinese Girls, has finally completed her work since the close school activities, and departed for a holiday at Mokanshan. Although school closed in June, Mrs. Young was not able to leave town until yesterday, because the end of school days meant the checking-up of all details of the school by the principal.
