

Friends To Entertain Visiting Josselyns

The expected visit of Consul-General and Mrs. Paul R. Josselyn of Hankow over the week-end before they sail on leave for America will occasion much entertaining in the local American community.

Mr. Josselyn, who until last year was connected with the local American Consulate-General, is expected in town with his wife and three children, this morning by the s.s. Pingwo. They will be in Shanghai until Tuesday, when they sail for America on the s.s. President Hayes, going by way of the Suez Canal. They will be back in China about November.

While in town, the visitors will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bland Calder at No. 17 Rue Adina. Mr. and Mrs. Calder have arranged for an at home on Sunday evening after 5 o'clock, so friends of Mr. and Mrs. Josselyn may come and see them.

Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Lockhart are arranging a dinner and dance party in their Haig Court apartment for Mr. and Mrs. Josselyn this evening.

Visitor Entertains At Cocktail Party

Dr. Marie Faus of Honolulu, who has been visiting in Shanghai during the past 10 days as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Thomson in their Route Frelupt home, is returning to Hawaii today after a very pleasant stay here.

Dr. Faus was the incentive for many parties during her visit here, and on Tuesday she entertained all her friends at a cocktail party in the Thomson home.
