This will acknowledge your letter of January 12, reference NY 12, requesting a list of newspapers in Mukden, China, together with rates, etc.

We have no detailed record of the newspapers published in Mukden but from other sources have learned of the following newspapers:

The Oriental Daily News, a Chinese daily.

Tun San Sung Kung Pao, a daily.

Shengking Daily News, a Japanese daily, and

Fengthen Kung Pao, a Chinese daily.

The Manchurian Daily News (Mansha Nichi Nichi Shimbun), published at Dairen, Manchuria is a widely read daily in Mukden. It is very important in Mukden as an official organ of the South Manchurian railways. Your files should contain information as to this publication.

We refer to the Bureau's letter of January 15, embodying a list of newspapers published in Mukden, China for the use of the Gotham Advertising Company of this city, which was duly transmitted to that concern.

We have since received a further request from Dr. Hill, Vice President of the inquiring firm, requesting that the Bureau endeavor to obtain more commercial details regarding the papers whose names were furnished. He is particularly interested in learning the size of the page, the number and length of the column, the number of pages, the advertising rates, and any other information which may be available regarding them. The names of the four papers in question are:

The Oriental Daily News, a Chinese daily,
Tun San Sung Kung Pao, a daily,
Shengking Daily News, a Japanese daily, and
Fengtien Kung Pao, a Chinese daily.
