To: The United Division of Commercial Laws of Commerce,
From: Washington Commercial Attache, Shanghai
U.S.A.
Subject: British Chamber of Commerce Journal
(Articles on Chinese Income Tax Law)

Dear Sirs:

1/ With reference to the communicated dated March 12 from the Division of Commercial Laws on the subject of the British Chamber of Commerce Journal, I am enclosing herewith mimeographed copies 2/ of an article entitled "The Income Tax Law" as published in the July, 1936, issue, and copies of another entitled "Enforcement Regulations for the Provisional Regulations Governing Income Tax" as published in the September, 1936, issue of the Journal.

Regarding copies of the Journal, it will be noted from my communication of May 10 (Letter No. L-564) to the Division of Commercial Laws, that we have written to the British Chamber of Commerce soliciting an additional complimentary copy for transmission to the Bureau on an exchange basis.

Julian Arnold,

Subject: British Chamber of Commerce Journal

Referring to my communication of May 10 on the above subject, I may state that the Chairman of the British Chamber of Commerce has requested the Secretary to put our Department of Commerce on its complimentary mailing list for the Journal on an exchange of publications basis. We are arranging to send the British Chamber certain of the publications received here for such purposes. Thus, I take it the Bureau will in future receive regularly copies of the British Chamber of Commerce Journal which contains material which should prove of interest to certain of our commodity divisions.
