

AULD-LING WEDDING

Miss Sarah Siu-mei Ling, well-known for her artistic activities in the Colony, was married yesterday to Mr Bruce Auld, marine engineer, at St Joseph's Church, by the Rev Fr A. Granelli.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr C. P. Ling, Chairman of the China Commercial Advertising Agency (HK) Ltd. Her groom, who is the son of Mr and Mrs A. K. Auld of Sydney, Australia, had Mr Gordon Milward as best man.

Wearing a full-length gown of white embroidered net over taffetas foundation and a waist-length veil secured by a diadem of pearls and rhinestones, the bride carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

The bridesmaids

She was attended by Miss Monique Dutard and Miss Genevieve Ou, bridesmaids who wore dresses of rose-coloured Swiss silk with matching boleros and holding posies of pink roses.

Master Richard Tak-kum Ling was the page boy.

At a reception at the Gloucester Hotel the toast was proposed by Mr M. F. Griffith, Inspector of Art, Education Department.

For her going-away outfit the bride appeared in a rose lace cheongsam with pearl accessories. The honeymoon will be spent in Macao.

● Photo by our staff photographer shows bride and groom and their attendants outside the church.