

PERSONALITIES

Attended Diplomatic Talks In Singapore

Mr R. McKeever, Vice-Consul of the British Consulate in Tamsui, Taiwan, arrived from Singapore by Cathay Pacific yesterday for a brief stay after having attended the annual conference of British Ambassadors, Governors and High Commissioners in Southeast Asia.

Also arriving in the same plane was Mr T. W. Garvey, British Charge d'Affaires in Peking.

Mr W. P. Chandler, of Cemac Associated Ltd, of Australia, will arrive by P & O-Orient liner Orsova tomorrow for a two-day visit in the course of a Far East tour on behalf of the Cemac group.

Mr Aldo Gugliemette, Manager of Hausmann Laboratories, Inc, Switzerland, arrived yesterday from Taipei by Cathay Pacific for a one-week stay in the course of a world tour to explore markets for his company's products.

Mr Adrian Swire, a Director of John Swire & Sons Ltd, left by BOAC last night after a business visit to Hongkong, Australia and New Zealand.

Mr C. S. Wong, Dean of the Faculty of Arts and concurrently Head of the Department of History and Geography and Senior Lecturer in Chinese History at Baptist College, has returned from the United States after teaching for one year as an exchange professor of Chinese history and philosophy in Baylor University, Waco, Texas.

Dr A. M. Malik, Pakistan's Ambassador to the Philippines, arrived from Calcutta by Lufthansa yesterday on his way to Manila to resume his post.

Mr H. T. Liu, Managing Director of South Textiles, Ltd, left for Paris by Air France yesterday for a visit.

Mr B. P. Sinha, the Chief Justice of India, returned to New Delhi by Air India yesterday after attending an Asian Judicial conference sponsored by the Chief Justice of the Philippines.

He said that the meeting was "very successful." It was the first of its kind in Asia.

Herr H. Sielmann, producer of Production of Scientific and Documentary Films, Germany, arrived from Munich by Lufthansa yesterday for a two-day stay before going to New Guinea, New Zealand and Australia. He is looking for location sites for a documentary film.

Mr David Chipp, Reuter's manager for Southeast Asia and Japan, passed through Hongkong yesterday by air on his way to Tokyo from Singapore.

Mr R. J. Larkin, Jnr, General Manager of IBM, Hongkong, left for Bangkok by CAT last night en route to Europe for a holiday.

Mr William P. K. Ling, Manager of China Commercial Advertising Agency (HK) Ltd, returned from New York by PAA last night after a two-month business trip in the United States.

Sir John Kinloch, Manager of Passenger Department of Butterfield & Swire, accompanied by Lady Kinloch, left last night by BOAC for London on holiday.

Miss Yu Ming, well-known film actress, returned by PAA from Tokyo last night after doing location work in Tokyo and Honolulu.

Mr C. S. Long, a 70-year-old world artist-photographer and President of the Photographic Academy in Taiwan, arrived by CAT from Taipei last night en route to Paris to open a Chinese photographic exhibition.

Mr H. B. Renwick, Vice-President, Sales and Traffic, CPAL, and Mr F. B. Holland, Director of Sales, CPAL, arrived last night in connection with the introduction of a third CPAL weekly flight from Hongkong to North and South America.