

PERSONS AND THINGS

Above.—AUSTRALIAN WEDDING. A wedding of interest to the local Australian community was solemnized at Holy Trinity Cathedral March 18 when Miss Madge Agnew of Brunswick, Victoria, Australia, became the bride of Mr. Rex Phillips, also of Brunswick. Mrs. Phillips came to Shanghai just a week before her marriage.—Ah Fong.

Above.—INSPECTION PARADE. The American Troop, S. V. C., is caught by the cameraman undergoing an equipment inspection by British regular officers.—Wei Fong.

Above.—TRIBUTE TO WAR DEAD. In memory of Irishmen who lost their lives in the Great War, Captain J. E. Inch, the president, and the committee of the St. Patrick's Society of Shanghai gathered at the War Memorial on the Bund on the morning of St. Patrick's Day, and a wreath was deposited at the foot of the memorial.—Ah Fong.

Above.—ST. PATRICK'S BALL. A gala evening was spent at the French Club on March 17, when the St. Patrick's Ball was held. The charming and colorful gowns of ladies attending the ball marked new trends in Shanghai styles.—Ah Fong.

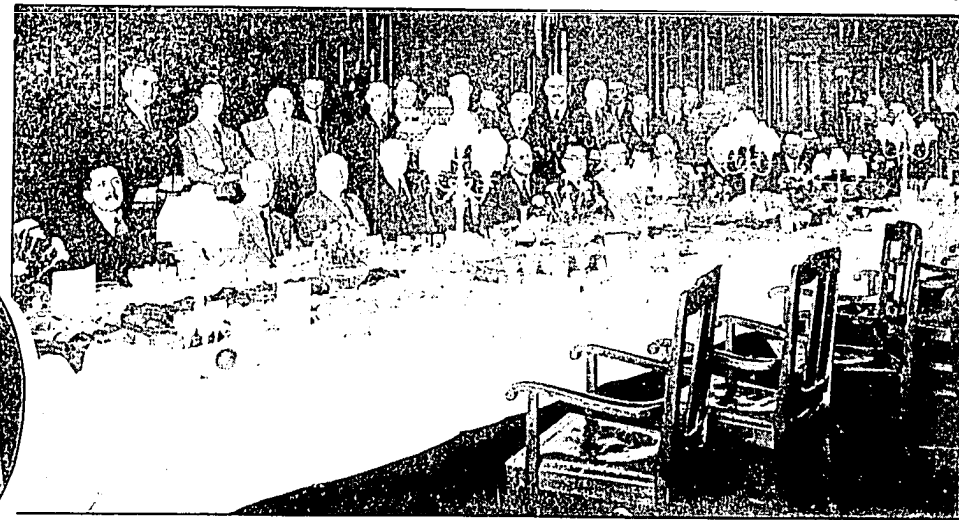

Above.—COLONEL FRED D. KILGORE, new commander of the U. S. Fourth Marines, recently arrived in Shanghai to take over the duties of Colonel Moses, who will shortly leave here.—Joseffo.

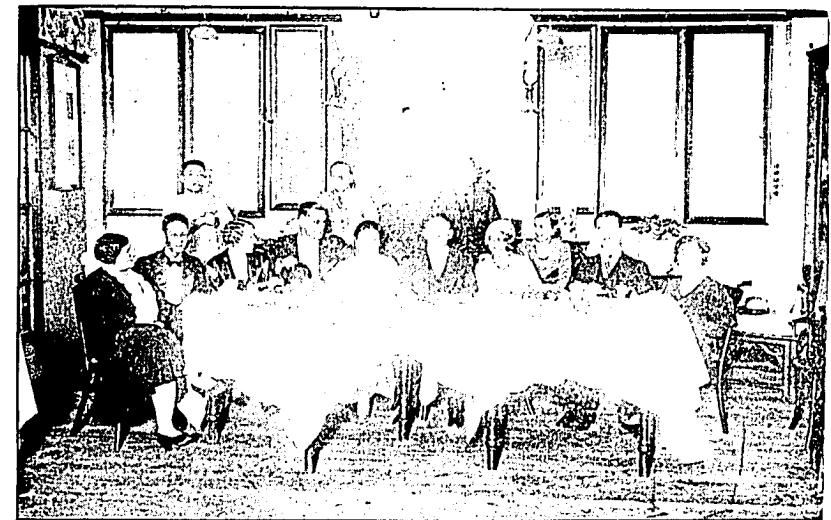

Above.—MANCHUKUO'S ENVOY TO TOKYO. Mr. Pao Kuan-cheng, the envoy of Manchukuo, paid a visit to Tokyo where he held a celebration at his official residence on the occasion of the first anniversary of the foundation of the state. To the party he invited many Japanese dignitaries in both government service and private life as well as members of the diplomatic corps in the Japanese capital.

Above.—MADAME TEODORO JAUREGUI, who is returning to Spain early next month for a vacation.

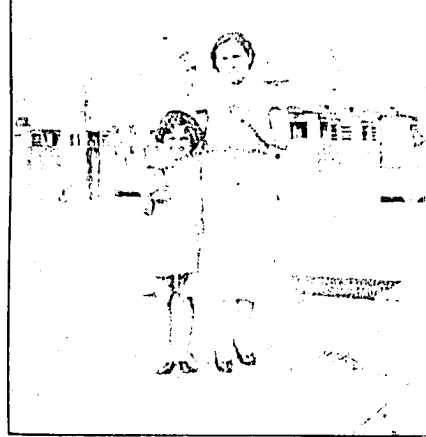

Above.—FAREWELL TIFFIN. Mr. J. van Haute, Belgian consul-general to Shanghai, who will shortly leave this city, was the honored guest at a farewell tiffin which was held at the Shanghai Club on March 18. Mr. E. S. Cunningham, the senior consul, expressed on behalf of the local consular body their regret of his departure.—Ah Fong.

Above.—GERMAN ROUND-THE-WORLD MOTORISTS ENTERTAINED. Frau E. Dorner (fourth from right) and Herr G. Bienck (fourth from left) German motorists, who are touring the world in a British light Ford, were entertained at a Chinese dinner last Monday by Mr. C. P. Ling, of the China Commercial Advertising Agency, Ford advertising agents for China.

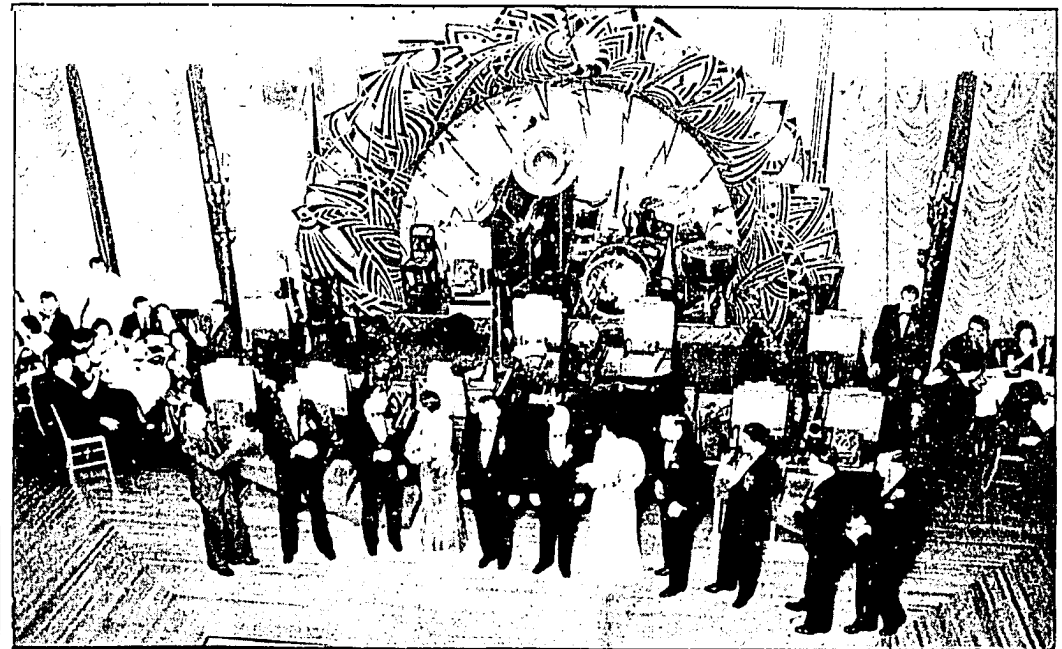

Above and Left.—INSPECTOR R. E. BRIDGES of the River Police, who sails on March 31 on home leave in the United States. The lower picture shows his wife and young daughter.

Above.—PAINTER. Miss Violet Kwan, who is well-known for her artistic painting and tasteful dress-designing.—Wou Kong.

Above.—ATTRACTIVE SPRING WEDDING. Miss Lillian Sze was married to Mr. Kingorow Chen, well known local athlete, on March 18, at the Moore Memorial Church, Thibet Road.—Grand Studio.

Above.—DANCING PARTY. In honor of Colonel Fred D. Kilgore, new commanding officer of the U.S. Fourth Marines Corps, and Lieutenant Colonel Moses, the departing commander of the regiment, the enlisted personnel of the regiment held a dance on March 18, at the Canidrome Ballroom. Respects were paid to Mrs. Kilgore and Mrs. Moses at the dance. Mrs. Moses is seen in the picture standing fourth from the left and Mrs. Kilgore, fifth from the right.