ABOUT "COLLEGE CLUB"

The Editor, Canton Times

"One of the circle" deploring the formation of the Western Returned Students' Union declared that "a new organisation will not by any means bring the college men here more together" and "will probably separate the circle into two". "The new organisation, adds, tho' One of the circle "may be assured that its members will be welcomed to the elder body". As far as it is known the new organisation never had the least intention to get the circle separated into two. On the contrary, as it was announced in the notice communicated to the local press, all the returned students were invited to the meeting. The promise given by the 'One of the circle' that the members of the new organisation will be welcomed by the elder body can but surprise those returned students who had the privilege of attending the last meeting of this "elder body" as it was declared that they were not members and had no right of criticism.

These returned students were quite defamed by means of personal attack for having ventured to express their opinion regarding the organisation on the "elder body". They sincerely regretted to have provoked such discussion and it was chiefly in order to avoid further mishaps always painful to anyone who has a clear understanding of his dignity, that they gathered themselves the other day at the Great Eastern Hotel and decided to have a new organisation where selfishness and rivalry must be excluded.

The Western Returned Students' Union, no matter if it could secure the joining of all the Returned Students or not, would in no way authorize its members to resort to insult others when publicly discussing some question. And it can be ascertained here that the members of the W.R.S.U. have done something for the national welfare as they always act with dignity and gentlemanly.
